SLUMS OF THE NORTH END TO BE CLEANSED.

HUMANE OFFICIALS ARE ACTIVE

PARENTS WHO NEGLECT THEIR CHILDREN MUST REFORM.

An Inspection of Squalid Tenements by Rev. Mr. Henry Hopkins Will Result in Many Arrests if Existing Conditions Are Not Corrected.

While the police and the superintendent of streets have been industriously engaged in looking after the task of cleansing the slums of the North end, members of the Humane Society have also enlisted in the work of trying to improve the conditions of many families who eke out a miserable existence. A few days ago, Rev. Dr. Henry picture of despair and neglect that had been drawn by the pastor was only too true. In many of the rickety old shantles and filthy tenement houses on East Third and Fourth streets a half dozen families live amid filth and squalid surroundings that endanger their lives. In many of these miserable homes the children are neither properly clothed nor fed. They live in a section that is steeped in crime and vice and little boys and girls, sickly and poorly clad, are early taught

It is this condition that the Human Society will endeavor to improve. Parents who are able to provide for their children and will not do so, will be forced to surrender them to the Humane Society in order that they may be educated and provided with homes not surrounded by evil influences. Colonel Greenman, in the brief tour he made of the North end yesterday afternoon, found a state of affairs that is deplorable

Seven Cases of Neglect.

Children whose ages range from 2 years to 11 years, sickly, scrawny looking children, whose manners and education have been neglected, were found in many homes some with scarcely enough clothing to cover their nakedness. Some beg on the cover their nakedness. Some beg on the streets, many of them are forced to steal by their parents, all of them are neglected in a manner that calls for interference on the part of the Humane Society. Colonel Greenman has a list of seven families who are accused of neglecting their children and unless they promise to provide for them in a proper manner, they will be arrested and prosecuted.

Property Owners to Be Arrested. Twenty-one warrants were issued vester. day afternoon by the clerk of the police court for the arrest of property owners court for the arrest of property owners and occupants of buildings in the North end who have refused to clean up their premises. These warrants will be served to-day by officers who have been active in aiding the street cleaning department in cleaning up the streets and alleys of the North end, and will interest the following persons: Joe Lombardo, 208 Locust street; Lebo Polan, 208 Locust street; Mrs. L. C. White. 210 Locust street; Charles Knell, 200 to 206 Locust street; Missouri, Kansas and Texas Trust Company, 209 to 206 Locust street; Jesse Shepherd, 219 Locust street; S. HE WAS NOT MURDERED. Pawn Ticket Dispels Theory That G. F. LeVan Was Killed for His Money.

The discovery of a pawn ticket for a watch on which he had secured a small loan in the pockets of George F. LeVan, whose lifeless body was found lying near the Missouri Pacific tracks at Little Blue station Wednesday night, removes all suspicion that he was murdered for his money and his body placed on the railroad tracks to cover up the crime.

The discovery of LeVan's body was told in The Journal yesterday morning. It was brought to the city on a Missouri Pacific freight train and taken to Wagner's un dertaking establishment. The coroner has been unable to find any witnesses, but will hold an inquest as soon as testimony as to how LeVan came to his death can be

The coroner and the police have learned home. He had started for Greenwood, Mo., on a business mission. He bought a round on a business mission. He bought a round trip ticket to that place and boarded the Missouri Pacific's Lexington train, which leaves here at 5:45 o'clock. When he found that he could not get to Greenwood on that train he paid his way to Independence, intending to take a later train from there to Greenwood. A receipt for the money he paid the conductor for a ride to Independence was found in his pocket. It is supposed that he either fell off the train near Little Blue or was walking along the tracks in the direction of the station when run down by a train and killed. There when run down by a train and killed. There when run down by a train and killed. There was a gash under his right eye and his all church, and a prominent member of the Humane Society, took it upon himself to visit many of the poorer families in the North end and learn by what means they earn a livelihood.

As a result of Dr. Hopkins' tour Humane Officer Greenman will probably cause the arrest of a number of parents for neglecting their children. He visited a number of places yesterday that had been reported him by Rev. Mr. Hopkins and found that the picture of despair and neglect that had been drawn by the paster was only as a gash under his right eye and his left foot had the appearance of having been wrenched off by main force. His foot was not crushed, as it certainly would have been had the wheels of a locomotive or a car passed over it.

The dead man was 42 years old and lived with his wife at 632 Norton avenue. He was until recently engaged in running a small grocery at 3923 Independence avenue, but of late had been engaged in the real estate business, having an office in the Nelson building. He has one son, Toby LeVan, who is employed in a livery stable at 3812 Independence avenue.

ON THE MARKET.

Home Grown Fruits Rather Scarce but the Supply From Other States Is Ample.

Home grown fruits are rather scarce in the market just now, but the supply is ample from other states, Texas, Florida, New Mexico and California shipping in pears, peaches, plums and pineapples with-a proper manner, they will be arrested and prosecuted.

This list includes Frankle Johnson, 2 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, 1II East Fourth street; Lee Williams, 5 years old, who lives with a blind man who is known as "Blind John." at 113 East Third street; Goldie Carley, 16 years old, who lives with the stepfather, Tom Hall, at 116 East Third street; Robin Ingalls, a blind boy 5 years old, living at 24 East Third street; Harry Stanton, 3 years old, son of Mary Stanton, who lives at Third and Grand avenue; Harry and Bessie Smith, 9 and 11 years old, who lives with their parents in the Grandy block.

The parents of many of these children are too poor to provide for them properly, but in most instances Colonel Greenman finds that it is neglect on their part, pure and simple. Barefooted boys and girls play in the streets of the North end that are lined we dives and disorderly houses. Their clothing is almost in rags and their features pale and emaclated. Cleanliness is the one thing that members of the Humane Society find is needed more than anything else among the families of the North end.

MISS EDITH JENNINGS.

Londoners have named Miss Edith Jennings as the latest American beauty. The queen herself is said to have started the vogue by commenting on her perfect beauty. She is described as being a "brilliant brunette, divinely tall, has magnificent syes, and her cheek is like a peach that has ripened on the Southern wail." Miss
